Case No. M-06-01791-VRW
DECLARATION OF BRIAN M.
BOYNTON IN SUPPORT OF THE
ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION OF AT&T
AND VERIZON DEFENDANTS TO VACATE PENDING FILING
DEADLINES IN CASES TRANSFERRED
BY THE JUDICIAL PANEL ON MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION
[Civ. L.R. 7-11 & 6-3]
Courtroom: 6, 17th Floor
Judge: Hon. Vaughn R. Walker

1 I, Brian M. Boynton, declare as follows:

2 1. I am an attorney at the law firm Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr
3 LLP. My firm is counsel for Defendants Verizon Communications Inc., Verizon Global
4 Networks Inc., Verizon Northwest Inc., Verizon Wireless, LLC, Cellco Partnership, and
5 MCI, LLC (“Verizon Defendants”) in cases that are part of MDL 1791. Pursuant to
6 Northern District of California Civil Local Rules 7-11(a) and 6-3(a), I make this declaration
7 in support of the Administrative Motion of AT&T and Verizon Defendants To Vacate
8 Pending Filing Deadlines in Cases Transferred by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict
9 Litigation.

10 2. The deadline for Defendant Verizon Communications Inc. to respond to the 11 complaint in Bissitt v. Verizon Communications Inc., No.06-cv-220, is uncertain. The case
12 was stayed pending a decision by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (“JPML”),
13 but no order vacating the stay has yet been entered by the transferor court.

14 3. The deadline for Defendant Verizon Global Networks, Inc. to respond to the 15 complaint in Herron v. Verizon Global Networks Inc. et al., No. 06-cv-2491, is also 16 uncertain. The case was stayed pending further action by the JPML, but no order vacating
17 the stay has yet been entered by the transferor court.

18 4. The deadline for Defendants Verizon Communications Inc. and Verizon
19 Northwest, Inc. to respond to the complaint in Hines v. Verizon Communications Inc. et al.,
20 No. 06-cv-694, is September 8, 2006.

21 5. The deadline for Defendant MCI, LLC to respond to the complaint in
22 Spielfogel-Landis v. MCI, LLC, No. 06-cv-4221, is September 13, 2006.¹

23 6. An order vacating these deadlines is necessary to allow the Verizon
24 Defendants to respond to the plaintiffs’ complaints in the various cases in a coordinated

25 ¹ In the other seven cases against Verizon Communications Inc. or its affiliates that
26 are currently part of MDL 1791, Verizon Communications Inc. or its affiliates do not 27 currently face deadlines for responding to the complaints because they were not served, the case is stayed indefinitely, or the deadline for a response has been postponed indefinitely.

1 fashion, as contemplated by the JPML in its August 9, 2006 order transferring these cases
2 to this Court for inclusion in MDL 1791. Such an order would also facilitate coordination
3 among the defendants and plaintiffs and would preserve judicial resources by permitting the
4 Court to address the MDL cases in a coordinated fashion. Absent an order vacating
5 existing deadlines, the Verizon Defendants would be prejudiced by having to respond to the 6 complaints in the various cases in a piecemeal fashion.

7 7. In an attempt to obtain stipulations to the relief requested in this motion, I
8 contacted counsel for the parties in the cases where there are deadlines currently pending.
9 My efforts and the results of those efforts are described below.

10 8. In a telephone conversation on August 24, 2006, at approximately 7:30 p.m.
11 Eastern time, I asked Eric Fastiff, one of counsel for the plaintiffs in the Spielfogel-Landis
12 case, if the plaintiffs would stipulate to the relief requested in this motion. I followed up on 13 this request with an e-mail to Mr. Fastiff on August 25, 2006. In a reply to my e-mail, Mr.
14 Fastiff indicated that plaintiffs would not agree to the relief requested in this motion. At 15 approximately 7:25 p.m. Eastern time, Mr. Fastiff called me to indicate that the Spielfogel-
16 Landis plaintiffs might reconsider their opposition to this motion but that he would have to 17 get back to me. At approximately 8:05 p.m. Eastern time Mr. Fastiff called me back and
18 left me a voicemail indicating that plaintiffs were not prepared at that time either to consent
19 to or oppose this motion.

20 9. At approximately 9:45 a.m. Eastern time, on August 25, 2006, I called and 21 left a message for Miriam Weizenbaum, one of counsel for the plaintiffs in the Bissitt case.
22 As of 8:30 p.m. Eastern time, Ms. Weizenbaum had not returned my call.

23 10. Between 9:45 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. Eastern time on August 25, 2006, I called 24 and left messages for Conrad Williams, Anthony Irpino, and Val Exnicios, counsel for the 25 plaintiffs in the Herron case. As of 8:30 p.m. Eastern time, none of them had returned my 26 calls.

11. At approximately noon on August 25, 2006, I called and left a voicemail for Christopher Slater, one of counsel for the plaintiffs in the Hines case. In that message I asked whether plaintiffs would consent to the relief sought by this motion. At approximately 7:30 p.m. Eastern time I called Mr. Slater a second time and spoke with him about this motion. He indicated that plaintiffs were not prepared at that time either to consent to or oppose this motion.

12. On August 25, 2006, at approximately 10:15 a.m. Eastern time, I asked Mark McCarty and Matthew Richardson, counsel for Defendants BellSouth Corporation, BellSouth Communication Systems, LLC., and BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc., if they would consent to the relief requested in this motion. Later that afternoon, Mr. McCarty called me back and indicated that BellSouth supports the motion.

13. It is my understanding that one of counsel for the AT&T Defendants sought and obtained the consent of the United States and the federal government parties to the relief sought in this motion.

14. There have been no previous time modifications in MDL 1791.

15. The requested order vacating currently pending deadlines would defer slightly resolution of motions to dismiss to dismiss plaintiffs' complaints but would permit the coordinated treatment of these cases that the MDL process is designed to facilitate.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on August 25, 2006. /s/ Brian M. Boynton
